

Scott A. Armstrong, Project Manager

History: 2002 – Present

Owner Representation/Facility & Real Estate Projects A.J. Armstrong, Inc.

Responsibilities include representing companies through the processes involved in new construction, remodeling, office expansion or relocation, new site identification, and strategic planning. Our objective is to bring projects in on schedule and at budget. Scott's projects include; Indiana Business College, Old National Bank, Midwest ISO, Jameson Inns, and others as reflected on the attached project list.

1997 - 2002

Regional Manager Strongwell Co.

Managed 14 state territory for Strongwell. Involved in architectural/engineering specifications, commercial, industrial, and public construction projects. Received company-wide Sales Achievement Award in 2001.

1995-1997

Sales Representative SysTec Services

Oversaw sales in state of Indiana for 10 commercial product lines. Involved in architectural/engineering specifications, commercial, industrial, and public construction projects.

1991-1995

Sales Representative RCI Sales and Marketing

Oversaw sales in state of Indiana for 10 commercial product lines. Involved in architectural/engineering specifications, commercial, industrial, and public construction projects.

Community Service and Associations

Member in good standing of Project Management Institute
Candidate for PMP Certification

President of the Community Heights Neighborhood Organization.

Member of Rotary Club of Indianapolis.

Chair of Education Committee.

Volunteer soccer and basketball coach at Ransburg YMCA.

President of IPS School #2 (Center for Inquiry) PTSA.

Member of IPS #2 INSAI Steering Team.

Member of GINI-IMAGINE grant approval committee.

Member of IPS School #88 INSAI Steering Team.